NORTHWEST NONPROFIT RESOURCES MEMBERSHIP MEANS...

I'LL CHALLENGE MY ORGANIZATION & MYSELF AS A LEADER TO:

- ◆ Think and act beyond the here and now.
- ◆ Tap knowledgeable and skillful resources.
- ◆ Demonstrate competence in my management practices.
- ◆ Take corrective action where needed.
- ◆ Ask tough questions about my role and organization.
- ◆ Participate in policy making.
- ◆ Explore new ways of delivering service and addressing community needs.
- ◆ Respond to community needs with compassion, creativity and competence.

I'LL USE NNR TO:

- ◆ Locate quick answers and clear direction for information and resources I seek
- ◆ Share insight, resources, contacts and ideas to help each other address our pressing and emerging challenges.
- ◆ Learn about trends, pressing issues, learning resources and events to build my skills, knowledge and connections.
- ◆ Explore areas of common interest and need.

I'LL SUPPORT NNR'S WORK TO:

- ◆ Empower the voice of nonprofits through education, advocacy on issues important to the health of nonprofit organizations.
- ◆ Educate leaders about issues facing nonprofit organizations and the composition, contributions and needs of this important branch of community life.

FOCUS ON LEADERSHIP.

NNR's information, events and services promote within nonprofit leaders:

- ◆ Credibility
- ◆ Learning
- ◆ Exploration
- ◆ Action

FOCUS ON NONPROFIT POLICY

NNR monitors and communicates information about policies that impact all of us.

NNR FINDS WAYS TO:

- ◆ Convene dialogue among nonprofit leaders about pressing issues
- ◆ Increase visibility of the nonprofit sector—who nonprofits are and what they do.

NNR ENCOURAGES LEADERS TO:

- ◆ Think and learn about policies
- ◆ Monitor, communicate and take action as needed
